Adults Acting for Stage Course

Explore acting through drama games, script work, and a short performance at the end of the term. The focus is on building confidence, creativity, and teamwork. You'll also practice stage techniques, like vocal exercises and body awareness, while learning a bit of theatre theory along the way.

Please note: This course is for fun, with no qualification outcome at the end. This is also not a business theatre course, and although elements of the course could support your job, it is not offered for that purpose.
